The Music of Nature	It's Music Day: the kids want to perform a little concert. Harry lends them instruments so they can practice all day. Lucy shows off until she breaks the flute her father lent her... it's a disaster! How to repair the broken instrument? Georgie Hoot takes the kids to the forest to collect some natural instruments. Not only Lucy repairs the flute but she also invents a new personalized one. Let the fun begin! https://vimeo.com/701950990/ea4773996	LAND ART	FOREST
The Pompon Walk	The kids have had a lot of fun today, while racing on their sleds! On the way back, Edmond suddenly realizes that he has lost his favorite pompon! The night is falling fast, it's too late to look out for it, they will have to wait until the next morning. But the next day, when they wake up, they discover a completely new landscape! A big white blanket of snow has covered all the forest around... Well, not too worry about, it should be easy to localize a red pompon in the white snow, right? https://vimeo.com/724424604/9e8e288ad2	SNOW	FOREST IN THE SNOW
The Incredible Featherstag	Edmond, Lucy and Mitzi are listening to Mima as she tells them a tale about an amazing imaginary animal that lives in the forest: the Feathered Stag. Mitzi is fascinated and dreams of actually seeing one! Mima warns her: the Feathered Stag is very discreet and only a few lucky ones have ever gotten the chance to catch a glimpse of it!! Edmond and Lucy decide to make Mitzi's dream come true and bring the creature to life... https://vimeo.com/724425356/5a98fb19a5	CREATIVE RECYCLING	FOREST CLEARING
The Traveller's Path	Spring is back! Lucy and Mitzi want to go on an adventure! But Harry believes they are still too young to go this far alone. SEASON

Every year the Chestnut tree community gathers and throws a party to thank the bees and their hard work. This year, Edmond and Lucy want to perform a show. Lucy expects the bee leading role but it is given to Mitzi, since she can fly. Lucy will have to play a flower... so boring! Flowers seem so passive... but are they really? Thanks to Harry, Lucy will discover all the tricks that flowers use in order to attract the bees. Now she has an idea for the show, an idea that is going to wow everyone!

POLLINATION

FOREST, VEGETABLE
GARDEN

Edmond, Lucy and their friends want to build a hiding place where they can watch stags belling. But Lucy, who is a little bossy, has decided she's the one in charge here! Luckily, both her friends and the forest show her the importance of cooperation.

COOPERATION

POND,
FOREST

It's winter. Edmond and Lucy can't take it much longer! They believe that it's always the same predictable landscape. It's cold, it's snowy, it's boring! Now that's an interesting challenge for Georgie Hoot! To prove them wrong, he decides to organize a treasure hunt in which every object found will be a surprise from Nature. Let's see if that is a boring treasure hunt!

OBSERVING NATURE

FOREST

The Thing discovers a precious stone and proudly shows it to the gang. They all dream of finding one like it and get busy searching! When Mitzi finds one in the river, our heroes get the «stone fever»! They eventually follow the vein to its source and face a dilemma: should they shatter the vein to collect a few shiny stones, or leave everything as it is so they can continue to enjoy the site's natural beauty?

RESPECTING NATURE

RIVER, CHESTNUT TREE, WATERFALL

Edmond and Lucy have to tidy their room, but they can't agree on who does it the best way. To decide who wins, they start cleaning the autumnal mess of the forest! But does a forest needs to be tied up?

SEASON

It's Barter Day! Everyone loves gathering precious objects in hopes of trading them. Everyone except Lucy who doesn't know what to trade. The problem is that she would very much like to have Edmond's flint. What could be interesting enough so that Edmond would be willing to barter it? Harry might be of great help as he shows her the great power of seeds... They're certainly worth trading!

SEEDS

VEGETABLE GARDEN

During a storm, one of the branches on Edmond's special tree snaps. But how do you heal a broken branch? The little group tries to make a potion that «stings» and discovers that playing tree doctor isn't that easy at all. They are going to find out that Nature offers everything they need for healing and that trees are living plants!

<https://vimeo.com/667179236/307e4d2d12>

TREES

TREES

Today, Edmond and Lucy have a mission: playing knights of the vegetable garden, defending it against invaders! Our heroes keep their eyes open, no earth worm, insect or hedgehog will get in! But wait, can we really consider those little animals as enemies of the gardener?

<https://vimeo.com/667179934/06417242d3>

VEGETABLE GARDEN

TREES

Edmond is expecting the return of his beloved swallow but he finds out that its usual nest is damaged. Edmond fears the bird will settle somewhere else... Now that's a good opportunity to have a contest to see who can make the best bird house?! Let's hope the winning house will be to the bird's liking...

<https://vimeo.com/667178916/f8e305f88e>

BIRDS

TREES

Edmond can't pull carrots up in the vegetable garden as easily as Harry. When Lucy teases him and compares him to a «little ant», Edmond decides to prove he's as strong as a bear! But what could Edmond do as well as Harry? Harvest some honey?! Well, no surprise, Edmond may not succeed in proving that he is as strong as a bear, but what if he ended up proving that he is just as smart as him? That's fine all the way!

<https://vimeo.com/686472627/c5fd9cc59d>

BEES

TREES

Georgie Hoot is the best storyteller! What is his secret? Edmond and Lucy would love to have his sense of improvisation so as to tell new exciting stories! They should use Georgie Hoot's 'story stones'! Pick 3 stones with 3 different drawings: one with the hero, one with a localization, and with a plot. You're ready to create your own story! Well, not that easy for Edmond and Lucy who like to stick to the drawings, whereas Mitzi likes to look around, letting her imagination run free...

OBSERVING NATURE

TREES

It's autumn and today, the plan is to gather chestnuts! While getting dressed, Edmond runs into his old rag doll. Edmond is too old for dolls! Edmond can't convince himself to discard it for good, so he decides to discreetly bring it along during the day ride. Once outside, the kids gets worried for the forest as they see that the wind is stripping all the leaves off the trees! The wind is actually useful as he sweeps away the fallen leaves that the trees do not need anymore... now that's an interesting phenomenon that might inspire Edmond and his rag doll...

<https://vimeo.com/686627872/03fe54080c>

TREES

FOREST, CHESTNUT TREE

Edmond and Lucy have decided to offer to Mima her favorite flowers for her birthday: lilies. However, the kids have a problem: Mima's birthday is 7 days away, while the lilies will bloom in 11 days. Harriet and Polka always have the most helpful tips, and this is how Lucy and Edmond decide to give Nature a little help so as to speed up the process. But is rushing Nature's cycles a good idea?

<https://vimeo.com/686631246/3c95247e36>

NATURAL CYCLES

FOREST, CHESTNUT TREE

Mima is a wonderful storyteller and tonight she's telling the tale of a snow monster that likes to capture people so as to play with them... It doesn't take much to make Edmond, Lucy and Mitzi scurry off to bed! The following morning, at the chestnut tree, the kids discover that Harry is gone. They find some strange footprints in the snow... Lucy is convinced it's the snow monster in Mima's story that captured Harry so as to play with him ! In the distance, they hear a loud snorting sound...Quick! They need to catch up with the monster and rescue Harry!

<https://vimeo.com/701949826/bf569f3e68>

SNOW

FOREST IN THE SNOW

When they hear Georgie and Harry talking about childhood memories, Lucy and Edmond wonder who could be the oldest inhabitant of the forest ? Mima for sure ! Their grandmother chortles. Oh no, there are inhabitants much older than her! The two kids are curious and decide to follow up the leads suggested by Mima...

<https://vimeo.com/701952184/800e5a4a23>

NATURAL CYCLES

FOREST, MIMA'S HOUSE, EDMOND'S TREE

To celebrate the completion of Lucy's hut, the kids plan to organize a tea party for everyone, with wild strawberries and tea! But wild strawberries are scarce and the water in the mice's stabilization pond has turned green. How can they manage to hold their tea party now? Thanks to the Mice's know-how, Edmond's great ideas, as well as Mitzi's clumsiness and the Thing's impertinence, the tea party turns out to be a huge success!

BIRDS

FOREST, CHESTNUT
TREE

Today, Edmond and Lucy have planned to watch the crested grebes do their ritual mating dance, but to do so, they need to be discreet! No that easy for Lucy who is totally unable to stand still! What if the art of being discreet could be taught by the animals of the forest?

<https://vimeo.com/701953433/a773150fb0>

BIOMIMETICS

FOREST CLEARING

A group of ants have invaded the Mice's house! As a consequence, they decide to settle in the chestnut tree until they can find a way to get rid of them. But who are the real invaders?

LIVING TOGETHER

MICE'S HOUSE,
FOREST, CHESTNUT TREE

The kids find an old box full of seeds that belonged to their parents. While Lucy decides to plant them right away, Edmond has a hard time letting go and would rather keep them as a souvenir. Mima tells him the story of Persephone, which actually helps Edmond understand the cycle of seasons, the cycle of life being an eternal restart. Edmond understands that he can sow the seeds and thus, reconnect with his parents and be able to admire a beautiful flowers field!

<https://vimeo.com/724427645/ba73694869>

SEEDS

GARDEN

Lucy is super happy: she has «finally» finished her hut, she can now invite her friends for a snowballs fight, but all of a sudden, a snow storm makes it collapse! With the help from Georgie Hoot, Harry and the snow itself (it's true that the snow has incredible superpowers!), Lucy learns how to build a snow shed... the perfect place for the most thrilling snowball fight!

NATURAL PREDATION CYCLES

FOREST, MIMA'S HOUSE, EDMOND'S TREE

Winter is a little early and Mima hasn't finished her «to-do list» for the cold and snow times. Edmond and Lucy go to great lengths to help her. In the process, they discover how Nature gets ready for a long cold winter.

<https://vimeo.com/744252726/e1a0f22c00>

OBSERVING NATURE

FOREST CLEARING

There's a heat wave. To help everyone cool off, Lucy offers to lead them to a spring that nobody else knows about. She instantly starts bragging about her exceptional sense of direction. But the others aren't so sure of her abilities... and end up being right! Will Lucy find the way to the spring?

<https://vimeo.com/744253194/d5984ee545>

MICE'S HOUSE, FOREST, CHESTNUT TREE

Edmond is amused when he hears Valiant Knight Lucy say she isn't afraid of dragons and decides to make one to test her courage! Inspired by Georgie Hoot's magnificent self-portrait with leaves and with some help from his friends, Edmond uses everything Nature has to offer to make an impressive dragon...

<https://vimeo.com/744253429/f4c508c614>

LAND ART

FOREST AT NIGHT

Edmond, Lucy and Mitzi are busy chasing caterpillars from the veggie patch when Harry, who finds this all very amusing, tells them to save their energy: at night, a fabulous creature will come to clean up the garden! Intrigued, the kids decide to sneak out to see the creature...
